

gamingSPARK: Video Games

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

entry deadline = August 28th, 2009 at 10:00am

EVENT TIME AND DATE: September 18th from 5:00–8:00 pm

EVENT LOCATION: The Raleigh Urban Design Center, located at 133 Fayetteville St. Mall, Suite 100 (on the corner of Fayetteville and Hargett St).

EVENT DESCRIPTION?

GamingSPARK seeks to showcase local talent in the Video Gaming Industry, as well as broaden the local community's awareness of the nationally recognized games that are conceived and produced right here.

We are asking for submissions of games created locally, in the following categories; Casual Games, Simulation/Serious Games, Mobile Games, and Student Games.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

The game must have been made in the Triangle, and within the last 18 months starting the day of the event, September 18th.

WHAT TO INCLUDE WITH YOUR SUBMISSION:

1. Signed and completed submission form.
2. Which category you are submitting to.
3. The name of your game
4. 5 screenshots of your game.
5. A brief description of the game to include the objective, key development details (only those you are comfortable sharing with the panel of judges, this will not be shared with anyone outside of the panel), gameplay, technical descriptions, and any unique points you wish to highlight.
6. A 2 sentence blurb about yourself or the team that created the game.

JUDGING/SELECTION PROCESS:

Jurors will be non biased industry professionals that have nothing to do with the actual creation or development of games. They will ultimately review and curate the final lineup and select the winners of each category to be featured at GamingSPARK. All submissions will be judged by the following criteria; originality, art, audio, and gameplay.

The individuals who submit selected games will be notified prior to the event. Selected games are to be presented to the public through multiple mediums and played by the attendees of gamingSPARK on September 18, and September 19, 2009.
